STAIRWAY TO THE STARS

AN ORCHID TO YOU

We present an orchid to Mary Virginia Mooney who has helped us with our lines and lyrics since our casting days. She took us through rehearsals to our opening performance of "Stairway to the Stars."

Many times when we were inclined to be a bit gloomy the friendly help and amusing quips of this bubbling, vivacious personality helped us over the bumps.

MISS MARY VIRGINIA MOONEY

LOCALITY

4. First Out.

5. Bus Pupils.

6. Gym View—Alma Mater.

BACKERS

Just as the backers of a musical production supervise the business connected with it, so the Board of Education decides all questions pertaining to our school and always sees to it that we have everything we need for stellar performances.

The members of the Board of Education are: Mr. Howard Parker, Mr. Monroe Hess, Mr. Russell Calvin, Mr. Russell Heyman, Mr. John B. Pitts (until February), Mr. Cecil Couch (from February), and Mr. Paul Harris, secretary.

Seated: Messrs. Hess, Pitts, Harris.
Standing: Messrs. Heyman, Calvin, Parker.
Missing from picture: Mr. Cecil Couch.

PRINCIPAL M. E. MALONEY

MR. MALONEY, GENERAL MANAGER

Just as every musical has its general manager, so every senior class of Phillipsburg High School bears the mark "A Michael Maloney Production," thus bearing the stamp of Mr. Maloney's personality and his understanding of students' problems.

Mr. Maloney, our principal, is a graduate of Lafayette College with an A. B. degree.

Mr. Maloney is known as the "Father of Football" at Phillipsburg High School. Maloney field has been dedicated in his honor.

VICE PRINCIPAL RAYMOND LERCH

MR. LERCH, TECHNICAL ASSOCIATE

As technical associate, Mr. Lerch's duties are important and varied. All productions run smoothly due to his constant attention to detail.

Mr. Lerch, our Vice-Principal, is a graduate of Lafayette College with an A. B. degree.

Hiding behind a mask of severity, his sly humor is easily discovered.

CRITICS

1. Mr. Houston and Miss Crouse caught by the camera.
2. Mrs. Sharp enjoys it.
3. Mr. Richards accommodates.
4. Mr. Weber assists.
5. Mr. Berilla supervises.
6. Mr. Dallman gives "us" a break.

"What's In A Name?"

T H E S C O R E

THE SHOW MUST GO ON!

Sometimes comedy, sometimes tragedy, sometimes even farce; but the student can always learn some lines to help him later in life.

ENGLISH

Cultivating the art of self expression, oral and written, is among the aims of the English Department.

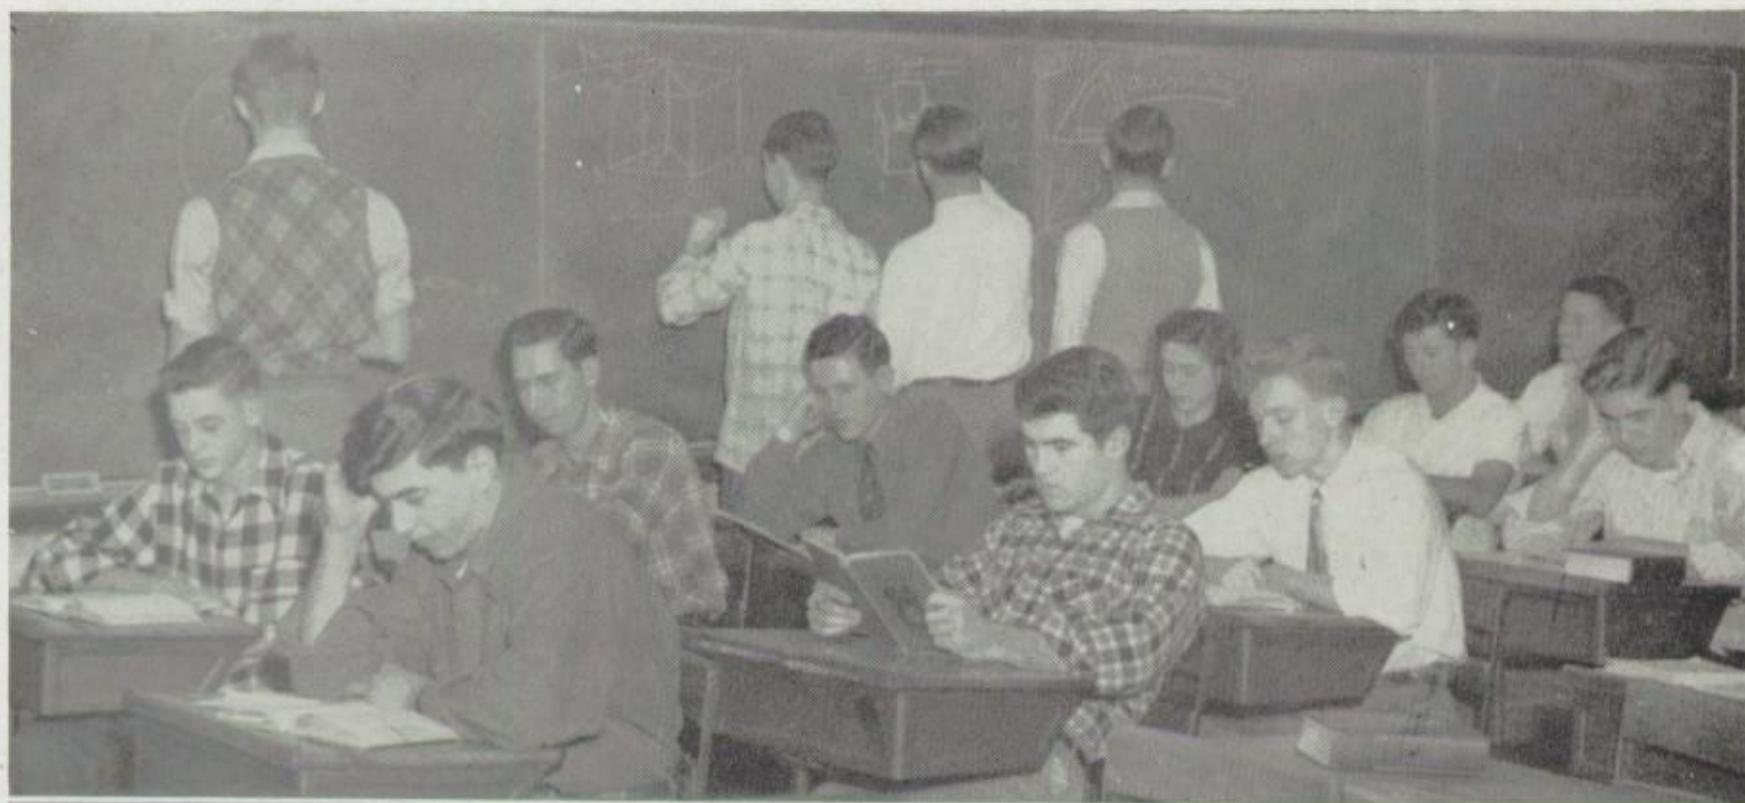

LATIN

Veni, vidi, vici has real meaning for all Latin students.

MATHEMATICS

Equations plus formulas teach students to reason accurately.

SCIENCE

With an eye to the mixture and an ear to the explosion the science students perform many interesting experiments.

SECRETARIAL PRACTICE

Future secretaries in the making! These girls work hard to reach their goal in life.

COOKING

Too many cooks spoil the broth! These girls say that's not so . . . the more cooks, the better the meal.

P. A. D.

The lessons of events of yester-years help to provide solutions for the problems of a democratic today and future days.

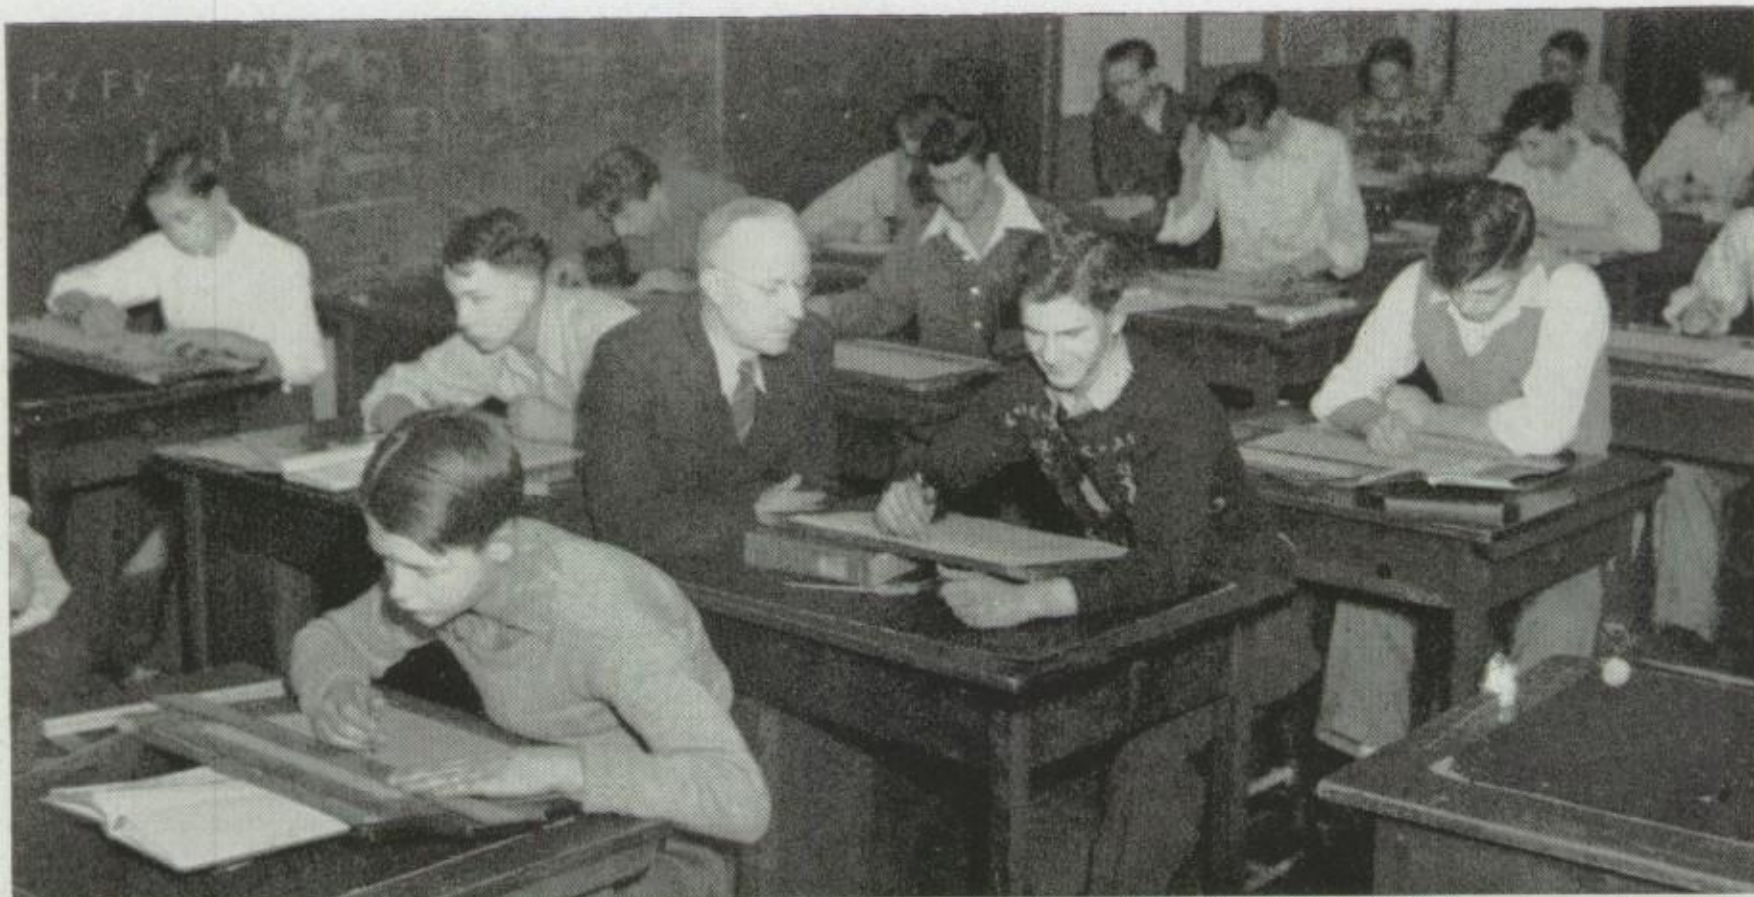

BOOKKEEPING

Does your balance sheet check? Headaches and more headaches.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Architects of the future. Fine pencils and precision drawing keep these boys interested.

Domestic arts; fine arts; or shop work; P. H. S. girls prove their skill.

HYGIENE CLASS

Here is where the boys learn what makes their bodies tick. Mr. W. "Bob Hope" Miller's humor adds color to every class.

PHYS. ED. (GIRLS)

How the girls enjoy those relay races! Let's not forget the basketball and volley ball. Arline Crouse and Adelaide Overstreet, the captains, put the girls through their routine.

BETWEEN THE ACTS

(EXTRA CURRICULAR)

Musical comedy stars have their night life for relaxation. Phillipsburg High School has many clubs and activities through which the students develop their talents and have pleasant diversion. Here is a peep at off stage scenes in club life.

1. Trophies.
2. Managers have fun.
3. Waltz Time.
4. Sport's Carnival.
5. "Bucky" Reese puts on an act.
6. The Five Musketeers.
7. Interested Observers.
8. G. I's.
9. Girls perform in Sport's Carnival.
10. Band dance.

BAND

Marching proudly down the field, playing to cheering crowds and thrilling them with its colorful maneuvers and snappy drills is our band under the direction of Hale K. Imlay.

ORCHESTRA

Rhythm, harmony and melody are blended to bring out the sweet music of the classics. The orchestra is directed by Hale K. Imlay.

GIRLS CHORUS

From the wings come the beautiful strains of young feminine voices. It's the freshmen girls' chorus singing the opening selection. Margaret Sillers directs this group.

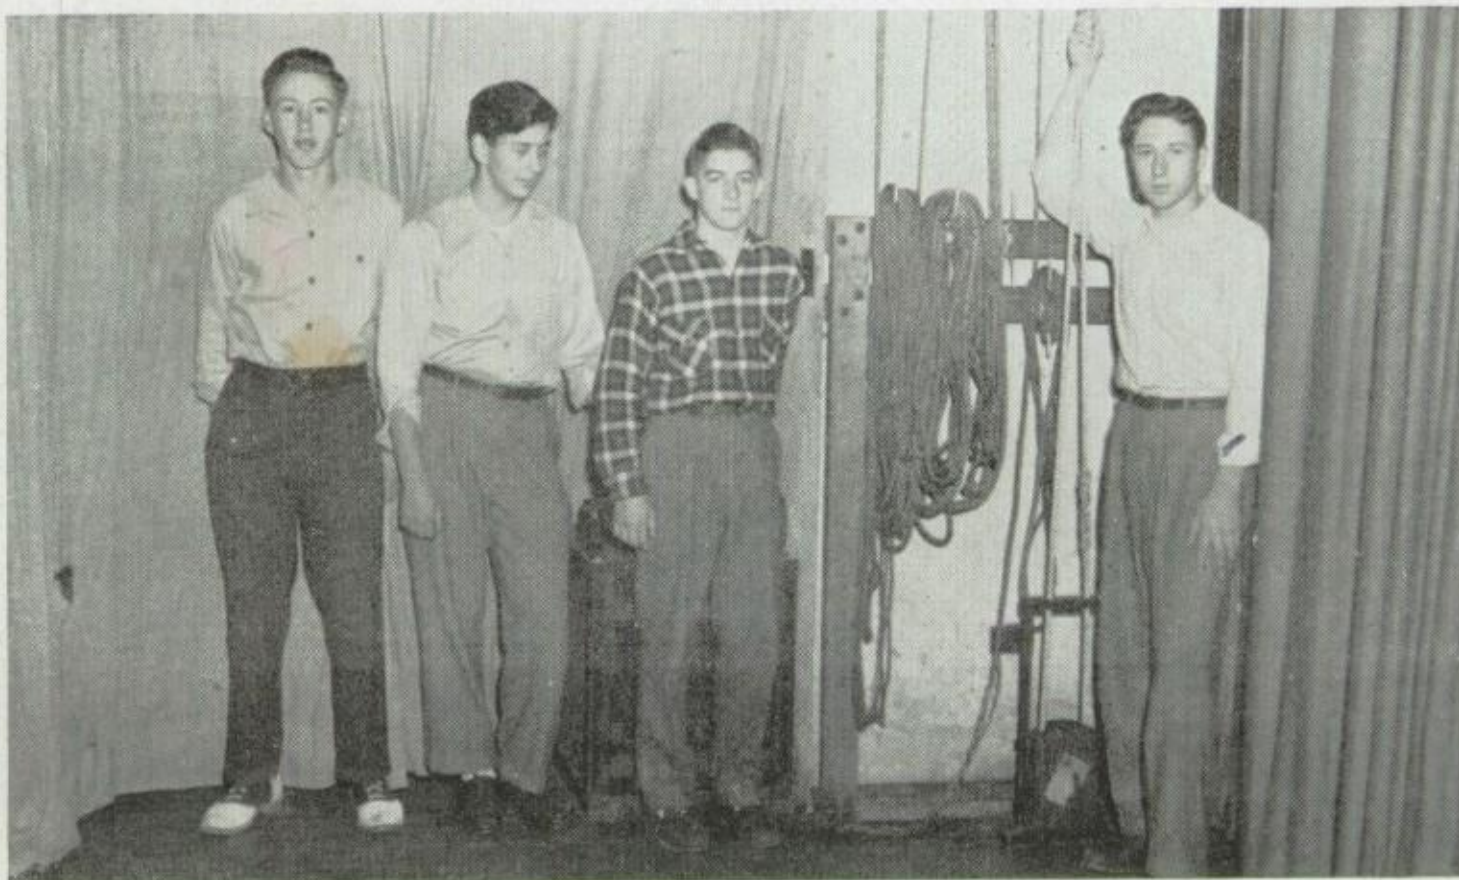

MIXED CHORUS

The deep, mellow chords of boys' voices and the sweet melodic tones of girls' voices bring volume and richness to the ensemble and paint vivid pictures in music as Margaret Sillers waves her baton.

STAGE CREW

Curtain time and all is well. Our faithful stage hands have everything in readiness.

STOCK ROOM

To see we get our scripts, material and other supplies on time is the duty of the stock room boys.

This year the boys have been particularly active. They met before school started and made new storage space and put up shelving. They had all supplies ready when school opened.

Not only have they served well in the capacity of stock room boys, but they are guiding lights who help those arriving for school plays and concerts after the auditorium has been darkened.

The names of this faithful crew are: Ed. Williver, Donnie Nixon, Eddie Rush, Bob Weisel, Tony Giordano, Bob Rush, and "Footy" Seip.

USHERETTES

"This way, please," or "Program, Sir?" the the familiar words of our usherettes.

When the performance begins, everyone is in his or her right seat and everyone has a program. These girls are very efficient and are a must on the list of our employees.

Missing from picture—Betty Meyers.

USHERS

"Please don't sit in the aisles," fearless ushers tell those who find all the seats occupied at a football game.

YEAR BOOK STAFF

Here is that combination of beauty, brains and brawn which, after many hectic Tuesday afternoons, staged this super colossal production.

Early in the fall of 1946 date lines were tentatively fixed, budget allowances impressed on us, shooting dates set, lead positions assigned and the busy chasers of write-ups began the collection of hieroglyphic scrawls to be typed—the result—the 1947 KARUX.

KARUX MONTHLY

Here is that enthusiastic group of underclassmen who rate a top billing spot with their snappy monthly issues.

MAJORETTES

Deft caperings of our high stepping majorettes add to the color of the occasion.

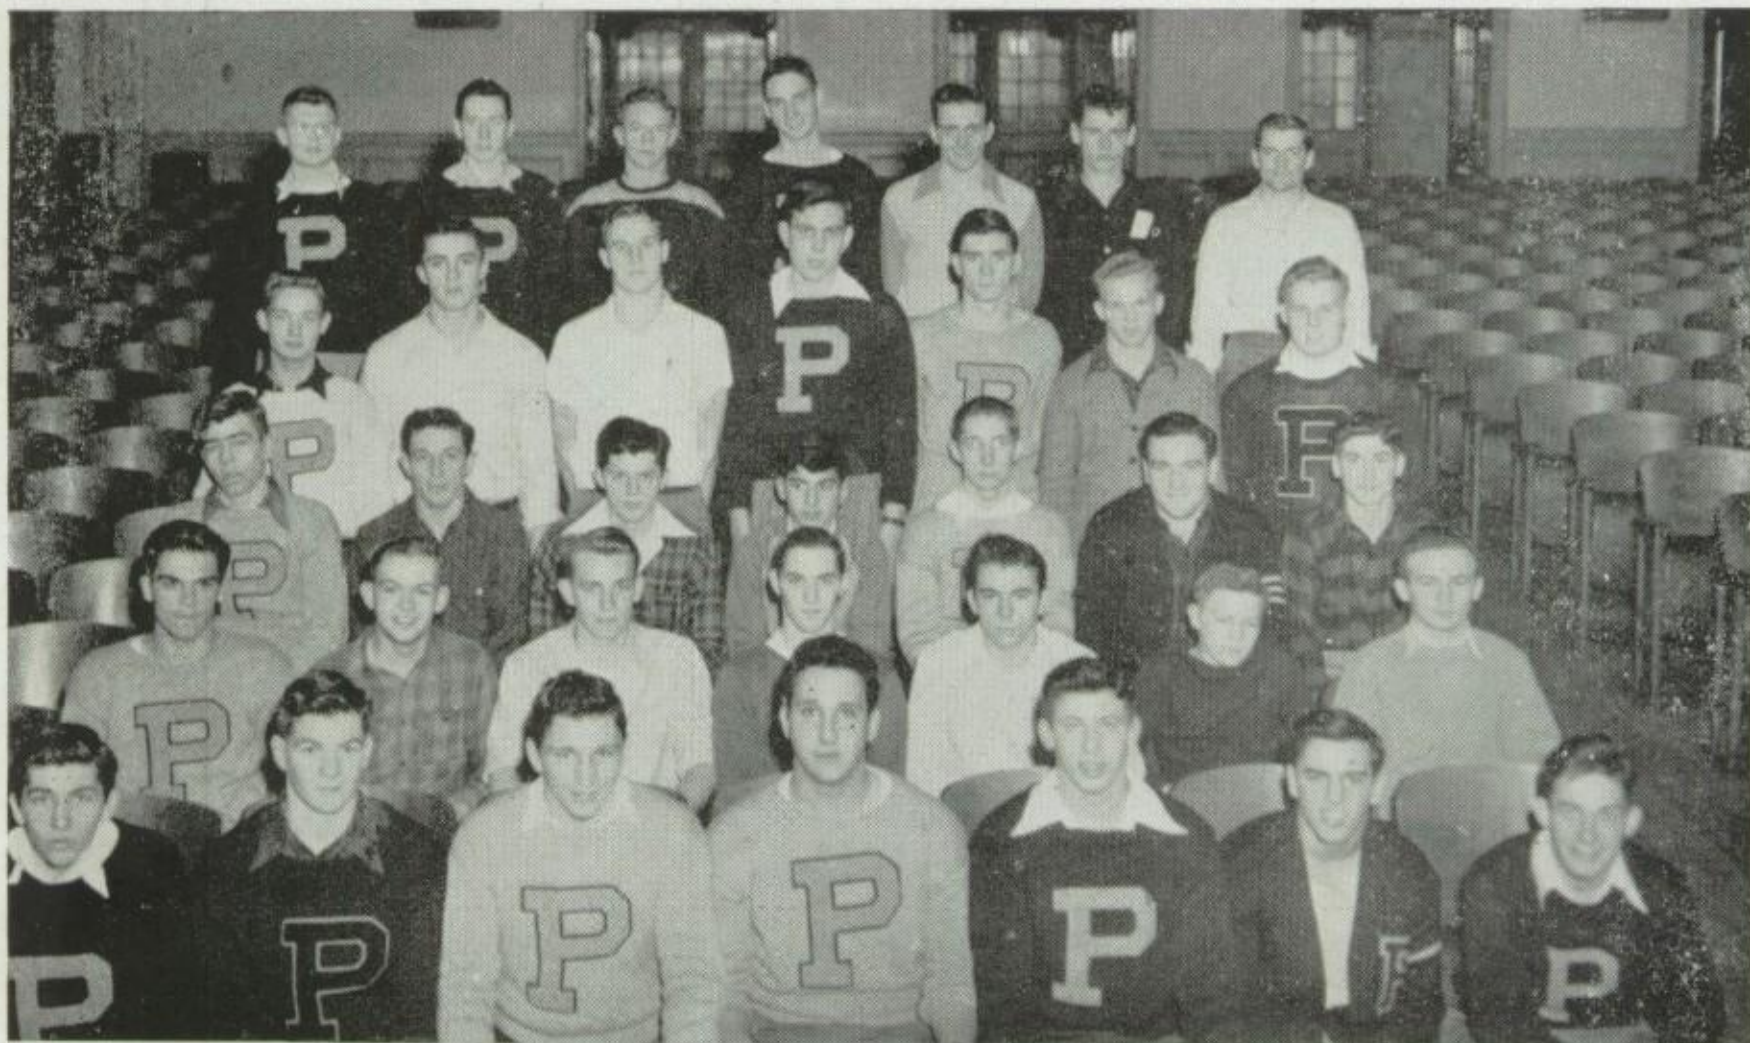

CHEER LEADERS

Roar, Garnet, Roar!

And Garnet roars enthusiastically, led by these girls in their snappy uniforms. These girls are trained by one of the newest members of our staff, Arline, of course.

VARSITY CLUB

For all boys who have won a varsity letter and interested in sports or banquets, the Varsity Club is a big attraction. Sweaters are purchased for these fellows from the program receipts.

TICKET SELLERS

Ticket sellers perched at the gates at every football game call their familiar "Get your tickets, please."

LIBRARY

Passing 211 one may see students in placid dignity that nothing can disturb—heads buried deep in books or magazines.

REFRESHMENT STAND

These Refreshment Stand workers may have gnashed their teeth over short change and a scarcity of hot dogs, but they still smile whether they say, "Here's your change" or "Sorry, but we're out of those."

The following items have been purchased for school use from the receipts of the Refreshment Stand Fund:

Vanity and Mirrors for Girl's Locker room and lavatories; Decorations for school at Christmas season; Public address system and automatic phonograph for gym; Music and records; expenses of student organization and delegates to conventions and organizations in state competitions; doctors and dental bills and spectacles, also clothing and lunches to needy students; and expenses incidental to student Stamp and Scrap Drives and celebrations.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

These girls learn how to help their community by attending rallies, cabinet meetings, and weekly gatherings. Ruth Sharp is adviser.

JUNIOR GIRL RESERVES

Until this year there was just one group for Juniors and Seniors. Now these girls are on their own. Marian Hess and Dorothy Firth are advisers.

SOPHOMORE GIRL RESERVES

Friendly get-togethers, parties, dances, and group discussions. Mildred Biddison is adviser.

"Cash and Carrie." The cash receipts were great, the play was great and the audience "Carrie-d" home the memory of a pleasant evening, and the evening's stars will always "Carrie" memories of pleasant times rehearsing and performing while Coach Mary Brill may well "Carrie" congratulations for a fine performance.

1. "Uncle Omar," the politician.
2. The Reunion.
3. Unseemingly emblems. . . .

CRAZY DAY

Any resemblance between P. H. S. and a lunatic asylum is purely intentional. Did you notice the horrified expressions on the faces of the Freshmen when they saw "dignified" Seniors forget their dignity? An old tradition.

1. Pretty "Girls".
2. The Gang.
3. "Mermaid" Frinzi.
4. Grand March.
5. Line form on the right.
6. Interested Seniors.

GRUB DAY

The Senior Class was in its glory doing what it enjoys most—eating. Everyone found it necessary to loosen his belt at least one notch. Music and dancing climaxed a perfect evening. Another tradition of long standing.

REMINISCING

1. Arnold Folk supervises the Karux dance on decorating.
2. A scene from one of the Christmas parties.
3. Girl Reserves Dance.
4. Captain Mantoni receives the Easton game football in assembly.
5. Karux assembly.

8. Decorating for the "Snow Whirl."

SPORTS STARS IN ACTION

1. Cheering Section.

2. Refreshment Stand.

3. Phillipsburg in the clear—Easton Game.

4. First touchdown of the season.

5. Returning for the second half.

6. Easton's good posts go to Phillipsburg celebrators.

7. P'burg goes after the ball.

8. P'burg gets the jump.

9. Dedication of Maloney Field.

THE GARNET STARS

A roar fills the crisp autumn air! The lads of the gridiron are stars, too! Only twice did fickle Dame Fortune desert them. Seven times they won over highly touted squads to bring glory to their school and praise to coaches Klein, Rhinehart, Moyer and Miller.

The team enjoyed a better than average season. Only three regulars were held over from last year, which shows the lack of experienced players.

However, we lost only to Allentown after putting up a good fight against an experienced team, and to Bethlehem, a traditionally strong team; but on Thanksgiving Day victory was sweet over our old rival, Easton.

This year's team was a fighting, plucky eleven and it's hats off to the gallant Garnet and their coaches.

A flick of the wrist! Swish . . . a roar from the crowd! The basketball squad did it again!

The nineteen forty-seven performance of our basketball team was a success under the tutoring of Coaches Wannamaker and Miller. The team was green but they proved to everyone that they had the fight and spirit of any Garnet team.

A NEW STAR

MATMEN GRAPPLE VALIANTLY

These fellows coached by Harry Houston tried valiantly to get in the win column. But it's only a young activity and the young grapplers will improve their hugging technique and make it a top-notch sport.

BASEBALL HITS

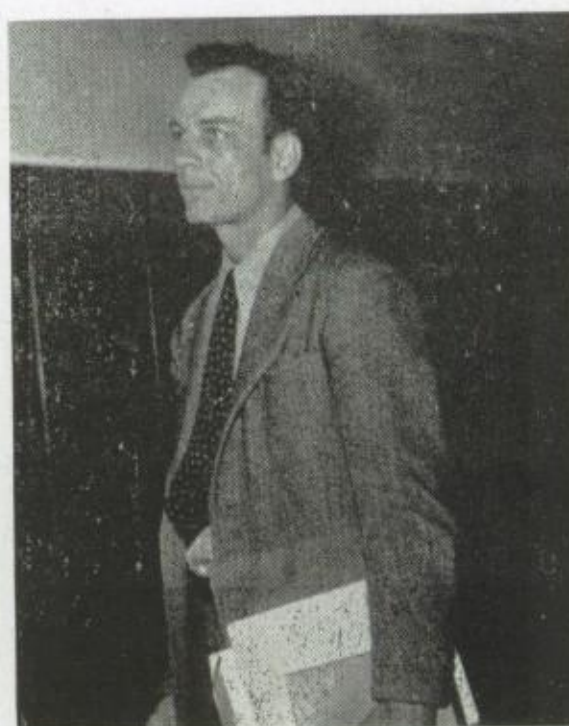

Here is that powerful hurling staff—the future DiMaggios coached by Walt Miller.

This was Walt's second year as head coach of baseball. An improvement was noticed in many games and the boys made several big hits. Everyone is wishing Coach Miller great success with his future teams.

THE GARNET SPRINTERS

The track team under the coaching of Harry Richards comes in for its share of applause.

The team had a number of experienced men and they proved themselves a stellar unit on the field.

TOMORROW'S STARS

It takes much training to make these unknowns into the stars of the future. They first appear before the critics green and with virtually no experience whatever. But under expert guidance of the critics and the current stars, they will emerge glittering and bright, known to everyone and cast in the roles best suited to them when the curtain rises revealing Tomorrow's Stars.

STARS

The final curtain descends on us, the Seniors, the Stars! No more rehearsals! In the final act we have proved our ability to make the climb to our chosen skies.

1. Popular Bob Riley.

2. Pretty Stella DiMatteo.

3. "Prexy" Mantoni.

4. Lois is pleased.

5. "Chris" Came Down.

6. Joyce.

7. "Oil."

8. Walking Down the Halls.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CLASS OF 1947

In September, 1943, we, a group of 313 strong, opened the doors of the High School Theater and girded ourselves for the climb ahead. As freshmen we were extras; and, as extras did the menial details. However, an 8-0 win over a strong Allentown football team remains fixed in our minds as well as the Freshman Frolic held in the spring.

September found us returning as a sophomore chorus. A few of us began to play big parts in athletics, dramatics, and other extra-curricular activities. But the great majority of us were but members of the chorus which aids and abets high school activities. V. E. Day interrupted play production for a day.

In the fall 229 of us returned as Junior understudies, glad that the war was over and fairly sure that all of us could now finish as members of the cast. The spring found us participating in that great event—"La Fiesta."

Then came the autumn. We had now reached the pinnacle. We returned as the stars of the show. In athletics, dramatics, and school publications we were the leaders, the stars. The year was highlighted by many events. Grub Day found us gorging ourselves and then dancing that overstuffed feeling away. Crazy Day was a riot of fun. Interposed between these two we scholastic stars received our ratings. Then came exams. How gladly we surrendered our books! On Sunday, June 22, 1947, our Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Arthur DeWire. We are sure the lesson he gave will help us. Class Day proved a fine affair. We all assembled in the stadium and there our most carefully guarded secrets were unveiled before the public. However, we enjoyed it greatly. Our Commencement exercises caused us all to feel sorrowful. It was the last time for the class of '47 to be assembled together in dear old Phillipsburg High. Our banquet was held at Pocono Manor. Everyone was delighted with the joyful affair.

And now, just as all top performers in a theater must make way for new talent, we leave the theater of Phillipsburg High School confident that productions in the future will equal or exceed those of the past.

Lyrics

The time has come for us to leave
The Play House we hold dear;
But none of us will e'er forget
Performances we held here.

Before we ring the curtain down
Let's look back in the past;
To recall our opening night
And careers that went too fast.

We first went on the stage
In the fall of forty-three.
Pale and shaking; small and quiet;
Frightened extras then were we.

We gave top billing to Ray Mantone,
Star performer of our cast,
And kept him in the spotlight
From the first act 'til the last.

The theatre had an open look,
The scenery strange and new.
We took our places, the show went on;
Not one forgot his cue.

At our Frolic we had fun,
A happy troupe were we;
Still we envied the stars
Which one day we would be.

Our second year we were advanced,
They put us in the chorus;
We managed to do our loafing,
They managed work for us.

The second act was quite a hit
Though we had competition;
We liked all the excitement
But still more—intermission.

Soon we were understudies,
The time so long-awaited;
So we held a gay fiesta
And danced and celebrated.

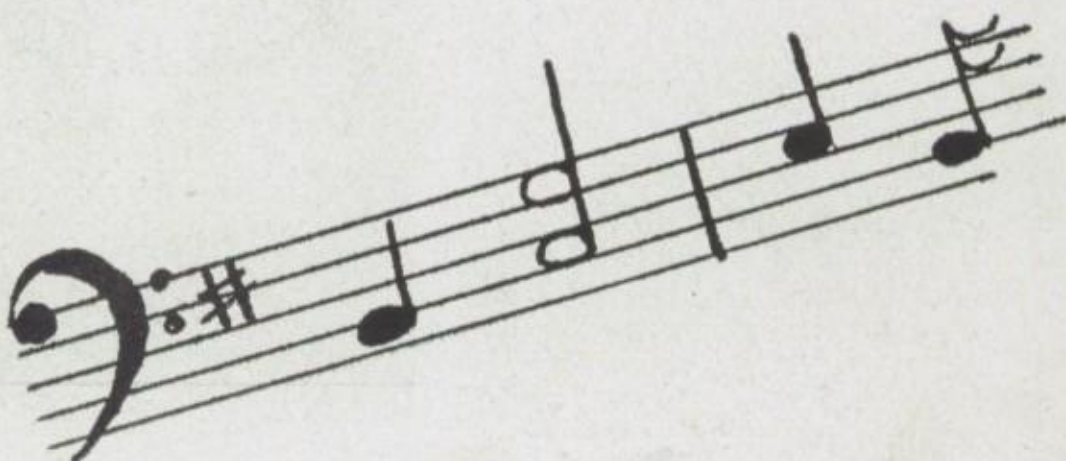

The days and months flew by
And stars we soon became.
We all had title roles
And climbed the steps to fame.

At last Command Performance came
And then it all was through,
We sang our last Finale
Beneath a sky of blue.

So now our steps are shorter,
We're finished with the past;
We've relived all our mem'ries,
We knew they couldn't last.

There are thoughts about our critics,
Which no cast is without;
They helped more than we knew
And enjoyed it all, no doubt.

So as the final curtain falls,
We'll turn our eyes once more
For one last look at P'Burg High,
Then gently close the door.

In Memoriam

BETTY KOSA

A LAMENT

The circle is broken, one seat is forsaken,
One bud from the tree of our friendship is shaken,
One heart from among us no longer shall thrill
With joy in our gladness, or grief in our ill.
As a cloud of the sunset, slow melting in Heaven,
As a star that is lost when the daylight is given,
As a dream of slumber which awakens in bliss,
She hath passed to the world of the holy from this.

John Greenleaf Whittier

EPILOGUE

ARNOLD FOULK, Editor

The "staff" has worked long and hard, and the "directors" and "producers" sigh with relief.

We look forward to "rave notices" about our great production.

After the show, don't forget our friends and patrons—the advertisers.

Show your appreciation by reading the advertisements and patronizing their establishments.

The Karux sincerely hopes their box office receipts will be great.

A large, hand-drawn triangle, oriented with its base at the bottom and its apex at the top. The interior of the triangle is densely filled with handwritten names and signatures in various cursive and semi-cursive scripts. The names are written in dark ink on a light-colored, slightly textured paper. Some names are more prominent than others, while many are smaller and more closely packed. The names appear to be a collection of individuals, possibly a memorial list or a group of names associated with a specific event or location. The overall impression is one of a personal, handwritten record or tribute.

ALMA MATER

OUR HIGH SCHOOL YOU WILL BE FOR EVER A GUIDING

LIGHT THAT SHINES FOR ALL WE'LL BACK YOU

EVERY ONE TO-GETH-ER WITH YOU WE'LL STAND WITH YOU WE'LL

FALL LOYAL WE'LL BE TO YOU AL-WAYS

AND WHEN OUR BAN-NERS WAVE ON HIGH WE'LL

"OUR NEW HOME"

H. G. BAKER, Manager

A Completely New and Modern Repair Service

For several years we had been rapidly outgrowing our recent cramped quarters. NOW with a larger store and new and more efficient equipment we can serve you faster and better.

Although alterations are still going on, we are NOW ready to repair or rebuild your bicycles and tricycles. We maintain our own welding shop for broken parts.

All work is performed by skilled mechanics and is fully guaranteed. Prices are as low as is consistent with quality workmanship. We solicit repairs from Stores and Dealers handling Wheel Goods.
